To

Sir

Re the payment of an allowance to the Octroi Mutsaddi in Gubbi Town Municipality

--oo--

I have the honor to state that the Amildar-in-charge of Gubbi Town Municipality states that the collection work of the Municipal taxes is being attended to by the Bill Collector and as it was found not possible for him to cope with the work, the octroi mutsaddi was also deputed for this work in addition to his own duties

As he has made good collections vide statement enclosed from 1-1-1941 to 30-6-41, the Amildar recommends that the Octroi Mutsaddi may be given an allowance of Rs 5/- per mensem for the said period of six months and that the expenditure would be met by re-appropriation out of the savings under A II (2) of the Sanctioned budget of the current year

In these circumstances, I request that sanction of Governmer may be kindly obtained to the said payment of the allowances as proposed by the Amildar, as the collections are really appreciable

I have the honor to be,
sir,
Your most obedient servant

Deputy Commissioner,
